

A2 Level Business Studies

The skills required for Business Studies include numeracy, problem-solving and the ability to communicate clearly with different groups of people. These skills, together with a thorough knowledge of the inside workings of businesses and the external factors that affect them, are valued highly among employers. If you are interested in starting up your own business, Business Studies gives you good background knowledge to help you assess your chances of success, as well as lots of practical information on the legal and financial requirements.
