

BTEC National Award in Dance (Level 3)

The BTEC National Award in Dance is equivalent to an A Level and can be completed in just one year, allowing A Level students to complement their other studies. The course will enable students to study a wide range of dance styles through practical and theory lessons, as well as through being a member of the BSix Youth Dance Company. The Dance Company has its own website. As a member, you will have the opportunity to dance, choreograph and take part in dance competitions and festivals. You will be required to complete two core units: performing to an audience and dance appreciation. You will also study three specialist units from a selection, including: choreographic principles, developing contemporary dance, jazz dance and urban dance.
